Single Students

All single students are required to live in the dormitories. However, students coming from churches in the Portland area other than City Bible Church are not allowed in the dorms without approval from their pastors, so as not to interfere with their involvement in their home churches. Any other exceptions to the housing policy may be discussed with the dean. The majority of all new students need to be prepared to have a roommate.

Yes, I plan to live in the dormitories beginning _____

No, I would like to receive permission to not live in the dormitories because _____
